Description	The principal addressed the gathering and welcomed the guest. The HOD introduced about the guest and handed over to the speaker. The speaker stated that the Menstrual hygiene management can be particularly challenging for females in developing countries, where clean water and toilet facilities are often inadequate. In addition, traditional cultures make it difficult to discuss menstruation openly. This limits access to relevant and important information about the normal functions of the female body. This directly affects their health, education and dignity. Access to information can be considered a human right A kind of informative &amp; awareness activity for the students regarding menstrual hygiene. All the students actively participated in session The participants were enthusiastic and raised some doubts and were clarified. They gained the knowledge and in the end the speaker showed the results of the same. Finally the HOD delivered the vote of thanks and the guest was felicitated with a momentum.

Description	The principal addressed the gathering and welcomed the guest. The HOD introduced about the guest and handled over to the speaker. The speaker stated that the recommendations for human immunodeficiency virus (HIV) testing are intended for all health-care providers in the public and private sectors, including those working in hospital emergency departments, urgent care clinics, inpatient services, substance abuse treatment clinics, public health clinics, community clinics, correctional health-care facilities, and primary care settings. The recommendations address HIV testing in health-care settings only. They do not modify existing guidelines concerning HIV counseling, testing, and referral for persons at high risk for HIV who seek or receive HIV testing in nonclinical settings (e.g., community-based organizations, outreach settings, or mobile vans). The objectives of these recommendations are to increase HIV screening of patients, including pregnant women, in health-care settings; foster earlier detection of HIV infection; identify and counsel persons with unrecognized HIV infection and link them to clinical and prevention services; and further reduce perinatal transmission of HIV in the United States. These revised recommendations update previous recommendations for HIV testing in health-care settings and for screening of pregnant women. Finally the HOD delivered the vote of thanks and the guest was felicitated with a momentum.

Description	The principal addressed the gathering and welcomed the guest. The HOD introduced about the guest and handled over to the speaker. Psychosocial approaches address risks to individual, group, and communal identity from disruptive events or life challenges. This approach is especially useful in situations where individual, group, and community identity and roles are questioned, challenged, annihilated, and need reconstruction-readjustment, such as migration and displacement caused by wars, disasters, collective socioeconomic vulnerabilities, and return. Therefore, psychological activities are essential to humanitarian responses to emergency relocation. These programs tend to have a non-harmonized psychological support approach and knowledge. The Course provides a framework for understanding the psychological aspect of displacement and crisis-affected cultures and harmonizes psychosocial assistance principles, techniques, and resources. Finally HOD delivered the vote of thanks and the guest was felicitated with a momentum

Description	The principal addressed the gathering and welcomed the guest. The HOD introduced about the guest and handled over to the speaker. Research is the basis of creativity and innovation. Academic research seems to be the most acceptable and influential element in higher education. The institutions of higher education are focusing on competence-based teaching, especially for Masters and Ph.D. level education. Although many Indian universities have been ranked among top 500 institutes by QS ranking, Indian learners and educators are still facing crucial challenge in creating, nurturing and maintaining the level of quality research. It is essential to develop a sound methodological base of research among the researchers to cope up with challenges in the field of research. Therefore, the current workshop is an effort to enrich the research scholars on research methodology. The workshop will provide students with an overview of the different dimensions of research. Finally HOD delivered the vote of thanks and the guest was felicitated with a momentum

Description	The principal addressed the gathering and welcomed the guest. The HOD introduced about the guest and handled over to the speaker. Intellectual property—unused original and creative ideas or works protected by patent, copyright, trademark, and trade secret laws—has become more vulnerable to infringements in a globalizing world of multilateral trade, increasing transparency, etc. Thus, the IPR is based on the idea that authors should be compensated to support R&amp;D. Science, technology, software, and business methods are continuously evolving, thus IP rights should be protected worldwide, including India. Globalization, information and communication technology, and knowledge aspects dominate international politics, hence these topics must be reexamined. Finally HOD delivered the vote of thanks and the guest was felicitated with a momentum

Description	The principal addressed the gathering and welcomed the guest. The HOD introduced about the guest and handled over to the speaker. The speaker stated that there were enormous socio-economic and residence related inequalities in maternal and child health indicators included in the study. These inequalities were mostly to the disadvantage of the poor. The fulfilment of the basic human rights of women and children is likely to pay dividends in many other domains related to overall population and health in India. Finally HOD delivered the vote of thanks and the guest was felicitated with a momentum
