Report On “World Health Day”

Report on the celebration of World Health Day

World Health Day is global health awareness day celebrated every year on 7 April, under the sponsorship of the World Health Organization (WHO), as well as other related organizations. Universal Health Care has become a fundamental principal guiding much of Public Policy and Healthcare Services in countries around the world. The basic premise of this construct is to alleviate the financial costs associated with healthcare while increasing individual access to these services. The World Health organization has designated the World Health Day to be 'Everyone, Everywhere', an indication that nations around the world are aspiring to provide higher accessibility of healthcare to their citizens. Time is therefore right for stakeholders in the public and private healthcare delivery systems and the medical education ecosystem to collaborate and drive the agenda of universal healthcare coverage for India. "HEALTH FOR ALL" has therefore been our guiding vision for more than seven decades. It's also the impetus behind the current organization with the view Swami Vivekanand College of Nursing of NSS unit organized an awareness program on World Health Day Them: ' Universal Health Coverage: Everyone, Everywhere' to Anganwadi workars, ASHA workers and self-help group at PHC, as part of world health day on march 26th the program Started with welcome speech.
