ANTI-RAGGING COMMITTEE

Academic Year 2019-20

The organization believes the importance of Students centric ambience and the value of nurturing their talent. It also believes that any act of ragging can obstruct the academic progress of the students. So as per the state government policy of Maharashtra and UGC guideline the campus of the college is declared as an anti-ragging zone. Ragging is strictly prohibited in all the areas in the infrastructure of the college such as classrooms, laboratories, libraries, canteen, passages, stair cases, lifts, washrooms, open plaza, in order to protect the students from any act of ragging.

Aim:

To provide the ambience of protection and security to all the students in the premise as per the ethical principles of non-maleficence, beneficence and social justice.
